WEST ROOFING SYSTEMS, INC. EMPLOYEE RECOGNIZED AT NATIONAL ROOFING CONTRACTORS ASSOCIATION'S ANNUAL CONVENTION

LaGrange, Ohio (March 23, 2017) – Mearl ‘Butch’ Kline III, Foreman with West Roofing Systems, Inc., was awarded the Roofing Industry Alliance for Progress’ Most Valuable Player (MVP) Award for exceptional achievements and contributions to the roofing industry. The award was presented on March 2 at the Mandalay Bay Convention Center in Las Vegas.

“Butch’s work ethic and leadership are second to none, and we could not be more proud,” said Jack Moore, President/CEO at West Roofing Systems, Inc. “His continued dedication to providing the highest quality of service for our customers and crew members exemplifies the core values of West Roofing Systems.”

The Roofing Industry Alliance for Progress’ MVP Award recognizes employees for outstanding field performance, job safety, contributions to a team effort and community service.

Kline has been with West Roofing Systems, Inc. for 16 years, including 6 years as a Foreman. During that time, he has won numerous safety awards, earned OSHA 30 Hour Credentials and led projects that were nominated for the Spray Polyurethane Foam Alliance (SPFA) Industry Excellence Award. Kline is also Master Technician Certified through the SPFA's Professional Certification Program.

This award is the latest in a long line of industry recognitions for West Roofing Systems, Inc., including the 2017 SPFA National Industry Excellence Award.
